

Realtors and sellers are solely responsible for providing prospective buyers with CC&R documents, POA bylaws, policies, rules, recent financial documents, maps and other information pertaining to the sale. The POA office will provide copies of this information to realtors and sellers on request. It is not the responsibility of the Sun West POA to provide such information to buyers; all real estate sales are private transactions, exclusively between the buyer and the seller.